Getting to know Rick Vizziello & Andy Forte of Active Adult Builders

Rick Vizziello & Andy Forte

How we got our start...

Rick: I started in this business 30 years ago, renovating houses in New Haven — where I completed over 300 rehabs. My first new construction project was “Branford Hill,” a 12-lot sub-division of single family homes in Branford.

Andy: After spending 25 years in the Mortgage lending business in Monroe, CT, I started building homes in 1990. My first project consisted of 12 single-family homes in Easton called “Fawn Ridge Estates.” I continued building single family home neighborhoods in Newton and Shelton throughout the 1990’s before starting “Active Adult Builders” with my neighbor and now partner, Rick Vizziello. I still have a hand in the mortgage business and currently represent Fidelity Mortgage Company, in Branford; an FHA approved mortgage lender offering a variety of competitive products.

Our first project...

In 2001 we built North Haven’s first condominium for adults 55 years+ called “Quail Run.” Additional projects include, Strawberry Hill Condominium in Hamden, a 32 non-age restricted homes—built in 2005.

Currently under construction...

We are in the final phases of completion for two age restricted condominiums, Hamden Farms, Hamden and Pondview, North Haven.

A little about us...

Rick: I grew up in West Haven but consider myself a native of New Haven. Currently I reside in North Haven. Golfing is one of my favorite pastimes along with wine-making and cooking. I also host a cooking show on North Haven’s access channel called “The Good Life.”

Andy: I graduated from Quinnipiac University with a BS in marketing. For many years I volunteered as a baseball coach and participated with the East Shore Babe Ruth League. I am definitely what you’d call an avid sports enthusiast. I’m also a Board of Trustees member at Hamden Hall Day School. I reside in North Haven with my wife and am a proud grandfather of a new baby girl.
